

A Seat “At the Table”: A Reflection

Breakout Session 1: Where are the power/privilege dynamics in your work?
Who has it? Who doesn't? Who decides who gets it?

Where do you have a seat at the table?

Which tables do you sit in the front of?

Which tables do you invite people to?

In what situations did you want to invite someone to the table but was told you couldn't?

Is there a table that you want to be invited to but haven't been?

Who is missing from your tables? Whose voices are not heard? Is it the same voices?

In what situations can a person have a “seat” but not a “voice”?
